

Upcoming Events:

STEREOtypes
Tuesday, February 20 from 12-1PM in the Silo Cabernet. Lunch provided!

Come join SODA (Students of Diverse Affiliations) for the first lunch and discussion about stereotypes, this time focusing on stereotypes in music. Where have you seen stereotypes in music? How do you identify and overcome stereotypes in music? How does the music that shapes our culture also misrepresent it? Lunch will be provided, and good discussion is pretty much guaranteed.

Say WHAT?!
Wednesday, February 28 from 12-1PM in the Silo Cabernet. Lunch provided!

Come join SODA (Students of Diverse Affiliations) for the first lunch and discussion about stereotypes, this time focusing on stereotypes present in everyday speech and actions (ex: "that's so gay!" or "you guys", etc). How does what you say reflect a stereotype? Lunch will be provided.

Lincoln Tritt
Wednesday, February 28, 2007 at 5:00 pm. MU Fielder Room.

Lincoln Tritt, Alaska Native, has asked to come to UC Davis to speak to the community! He believes it is important to rebuild and rediscover humanity and will address the Western European Influence on Native history and even its presence today. Come and enjoy his lecture!

APIQ Awareness Week
Monday, Feb. 26th | APIQ 101: What We Do & How We Do It | 6-7pm | Wellman 105

An introductory talk about why APIQ exists in the campus community. We will introduce the coordinators and present APIQ's mission statement. Attendees will learn about the structure, history, and goals of the organization. Join us to learn more about APIQ and figure out how you can become an ally.

Tuesday, Feb. 27th | Movie Night | 7:30-9:30pm | Wellman 126

Come watch a Queer and Asian film! APIQ will choose a film that touches upon issues pertaining to the queer API community. In the past, APIQ has shown Saving Face, Beautiful Boxer, and The Wedding Banquet. The movie title will be revealed at the event. Popcorn and drinks will be provided!

Wednesday, Feb. 28th | "What's in the Closet?!" | 7-9pm | Wellman 115

What does it mean to be transgendered or intersex? Isn't queer a derogatory term? Join us as we raise consciousness, question mainstream queer issues and stereotypes, clarify misconceptions, and analyze our beliefs and attitudes towards the LGBTI community in a respectful and self-reflective discussion about marginalized queer API identities and issues. In doing so, we'll be able to address heterosexism and homophobia, become better allies, and ultimately work together towards a more inclusive and united community.

Thursday, Mar. 1st | "Talk to a Real Queer API" | 7-9pm | Wellman 205

Ever wanted to talk to a queer API person? Well, here's your chance to hear what we have to say. In this Q&A session, you will be able to talk to a panel of APIQs. They will share their personal stories, views, and experiences with the general public. Please come prepared with any questions you might have regarding the queer API community.

Friday, Mar. 2nd | SKIM - Live! | 7-9pm | MU Griffin Lounge

Los Angeles based hip-hop artist Skim will be performing live at the MU Griffin Lounge. Local artists Sickspits will be opening for her.
