November 2019

Dear Vendor,

Greetings on behalf of the UC Davis Powwow Committee! Thank you for your interest in participating in our 6th Annual Indigenous Arts Market and 48th Annual Native American Powwow. Below is the basic information for vendors on how the vendor application process works and what to expect. If you have any questions regarding the information below please do not hesitate to get in contact with us.

The 6th Annual UC Davis Indigenous Arts Market will be held on:
Friday April 10th, 2020 from 10am-5pm
Outside on the Quad of the UC Davis Campus

The 48th Annual Powwow will be held:
Saturday April 11th, 2020 from 10am-10pm
Outside on the Quad of the UC Davis Campus

Please keep in mind that space is limited and therefore we will not have the capacity to accept every applicant. Once an application has been submitted it will be reviewed by the committee. If you receive an offer letter you will have two weeks from the postmarked date to submit the vendor fee unless otherwise discussed.

To reserve a vendor booth at the Arts Market or Powwow, a vendor application must be completed and submitted with photos of your items for sale, and automobile liability insurance.

All vendors must have a proof of automobile liability insurance to drive onto campus prior to vending at the Indigenous Arts Market and/or UC Davis Powwow. Please refer to the information and instructions listed on the Vendor Application Form.

We cannot guarantee a booth space for late applications. You must submit a vendor application in advance, as we cannot accommodate vendor requests on the day of the event.

Once we receive your completed vendor packet with all required materials, you will receive a confirmation email that we have received your application. The Powwow Committee will begin screening applications in January 2020. If you are selected to vend, you will receive a letter of acceptance via email confirmation. Your letter of acceptance will include all necessary information including; location, parking and time of set up. For the day of, volunteers will be available to help you set up.

ACCESSIBILITY AND ACCOMMODATIONS:
If you require a particular booth location due to physical accommodation needs, please state that request within your application. We will do our best to accommodate all requests. Transportation shuttles will be available to take participants to and from the designated parking lots to the event location.

ITEMS FOR SALE
- Please submit photos of items you intend on selling, or direct us to your website to view your merchandise.
- The selling of Eagle feathers and other sacred items is prohibited and will not be allowed in or around the Powwow.
- The selling of knives, arrows, arrowheads or other weapons are prohibited.
- Authentic Native American and Indigenous merchandise is strongly advised. We strive to support Native and Indigenous vendors as opposed to Native “inspired”.
- We reserve the right to decline any application if the materials being sold are deemed inappropriate.

THIS EVENT IS AN ALCOHOL AND DRUG FREE EVENT!
UC Davis is an alcohol, drug and smoke free campus. We thank you for helping us keep the Powwow a safe and welcoming environment for everyone.
IN CASE OF RAIN

In case of immense rain the Indigenous Arts Market and Powwow will be cancelled. This is a decision that will be left to the Program Coordinator in consultation with the Powwow Committee and University staff. In the case of the Powwow being cancelled, vendor fees will be returned.

The UC Davis Powwow Committee is comprised of students, staff, faculty and community members and is committed to organizing our annual Powwow. We work year-round to ensure a quality community gathering that upholds cultural integrity and respect.

We approach our work with a hemispheric lens, thus empowering community members to grow in their Indigenous identity, culture, and heritage in a way that is inclusive and not exclusive.

We are grateful for your interest and potential participation in the 6th Annual Indigenous Arts Market and 48th Annual Powwow. Your presence and art makes an invaluable contribution in ensuring a successful community gathering celebrating inter-tribal traditions and cultural heritage.
